Daily Briefing

Thursday 26th March 2020

Key stories for the day, with thanks to our WhatsApp group who keep these coming in all day.

Nationally

- All of the major supermarkets are adapting to the new rules with restricted opening hours and some with queuing systems.
- Sainsbury and Tesco took out full page adverts yesterday detailing the times set aside for vulnerable and NHS workers
- ASDA has published new opening hours on its web site and is setting aside times for NHS workers
- The NHS has launched a Covid-19 symptom tracker and they are encouraging downloads by everyone, even those who feel well. By aggregating the data from across each region they hope to spot the early emergence of virus hot spots.
- East Northamptonshire Council are offering Council Tax payment extensions to people struggling with hardship. You can now apply to pay over 12 months not 10.
- The Department for Transport has extended the MOTs of vehicles that were due to be tested in the coming weeks.
- The Government Launched a Corona Virus WhatsApp group which delivers information and advice to your phone.
- The NHS and Royal Voluntary Service launched a hugely successful call for volunteers

Locally:

- Lancaster Farm shop are moving to a telephone ordering system
- The Raunds based Adams Apple do online ordering and home delivery of groceries.
- Local bakers in Raunds and Higham are now launching order and delivery services
- The local green grocer in Higham has excellent supplies and regular deliveries
- The Parish Council has an excellent map of the local walks in this area but don't forget social distancing!
